CHAPTER 333.

Passed Mar. 10, 1866. AN ACT to limit the places for retailing certain articles in the city of Baltimore.

It shall not be lawful. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall not be lawful for any person to engage in, conduct, or carry on the business of retailing fresh slaughtered meats in the city of Baltimore, except within the public market houses thereof, and that every person who shall engage in, conduct, or carry on the business of retailing fresh slaughtered meats in said city, except within the public market houses, as aforesaid, shall be liable, for the first offence, to a penalty of ten dollars, and for each succeeding offence, to a penalty of twenty dollars, said penalties to be recovered on complaint before any single Justice of the Peace in said city, and paid over to the Register of said city, to and for the use of the same; Provided, however, that nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent farmers from selling their own produce or meats in the streets of Baltimore.

Proviso.

To take effect. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall go into effect from and after the date of its passage; Provided, the same be approved by the Mayor and City Council of the City of Baltimore.

Proviso.
