

T. WATKINS LIGON, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR.

LAW OF MARYLAND

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That any hawker or pedlar who may be found buying, trading, bartering or selling, or offering to buy, trade, barter or sell any goods, wares or merchandise as aforesaid; without having his, her or their license with him, her or them at the time, or who shall refuse the request of any sheriff or constable to show his, her or their license, shall be considered as committing a violation of this act.

To be considered a violation of law.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That for every apprehension and conviction under this act, the sheriff or constable or any other person apprehending, shall be entitled to receive the sum of ten dollars to be recovered as part of the costs.

Entitled to receive.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That all sums of money received by the clerks of the circuit courts of this State, or by the clerk of the court of common pleas of Baltimore city, for the granting of licenses under the provisions of this act, shall be by them respectively accounted for and paid over to the treasurer in the same manner as is now required by law.

Disposal of money.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the clerk of any court who may be required to grant a license under the provisions of this act, to any hawker or pedlar, shall be entitled to receive the sum of one dollar, to be paid to him by the said hawker or pedlar for each and every license so granted.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That all such acts which are repugnant to or inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Repealed.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect on and after the thirtieth day of the April next.

In force.