

bound copies of the laws, journals and documents, and Maryland reports to the clerks and registers of Wills of this State, and to the Governors of the several States, seventy-five dollars; to the Executive for the contingent fund, provided in the constitution, to be placed at his disposal, six thousand dollars; to the contingent fund for the Library including the expense of lights, of postage, of portorage and of freight, of stationery, of menial services and assistance, of advertising and printing, and all other incidental expenses, one thousand three hundred dollars; to the expense of binding the laws, journals and public documents of the present session, eight hundred dollars; to the special judges, appointed in pursuance of the twenty-second section of the fourth article of the constitution, three thousand five hundred dollars; to the contingent expenses of the Treasury Department, one thousand dollars; to the printing of blank licenses for the Comptroller, eight hundred dollars; to the payment of the interest on the public debt of this State, that is to say, the interest falling due quarterly on the currency debt of the State, four hundred and six thousand dollars; and to the interest on the public debt falling due semi-annually and payable in London, including cost of exchange, remittance and commissions, two hundred and sixty-two thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars; Provided, however, that all that portion of the interest on the public debt which at any time during the year ending on the first day of January eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, shall be due on that part of said debt which may constitute the sinking fund of the State, shall be applied by the Treasurer to the purchase of stock or bonds of the State for the increase of the said fund: to the payment of the interest falling due on the first day of July, in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-six, and on the first day of January, in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, on the bonds or certificates of debt of the Annapolis and Elkridge Railroad Company, issued in pursuance of chapter one hundred and sixty-eight of eighteen hundred and forty-one, and to the payment of so much of the principal of said bonds or certificates of debt as is directed to be paid by the said act, seven thousand dollars; Provided, however, that only so much thereof shall be so applied as may be equal to the net profits of the said Annapolis and Elkridge Railroad Company, and the profits which this State shall or

Proviso.