

Passed Mar.
10, 1856.

district to furnish such number or proportion of laborers employed by them respectively as may be necessary for the repair of the road in such district, under a penalty of not over two dollars per day for each laborer, refused or neglected to be sent under such requirement; and whenever any penalty as above is incurred, the county commissioners aforesaid shall add the same to the other taxes of the taxable so fined, to be collected as other taxes.

Supervisor
for neglect of duty may be fined.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That upon complaint, on oath, of any citizen, that any part of the road in Charles county, is and has been, for the space of ten days, out of repair, and the supervisor is not repairing and has not repaired the same, and the county commissioners, before whom the said complaint shall be made, are satisfied that the road supervisor over the road complained of has neglected to repair the same, the said county commissioners shall have full power and authority to fine the said supervisor not less than five nor more than fifty dollars, for every such neglect, and reserve the same from any salary or compensation provided for the said supervisor.

Fines to be paid county commissioners.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That all fines and forfeitures hereafter incurred for neglect in repairing roads, shall be collected and paid to the county commissioners of Charles county, and not to the State.

CHAPTER 350.

Passed Mar.
10, 1856.

AN ACT appropriating a sum of money for the payment of the claims of Iglehart & Caldwell, Samuel Brooks, John E. Stalker, McDowell & Gable, George Jacoby, Richard R. Conner, Emanuel Dadds, Dennis C. Thompson, Thomas A. Mitchell, Thomas Brewer, Lewis F. Gootee, William Harwood, James Hopkins, James H. League, William S. Clayton, Thomas J. Earickson, Alexander Ridgeway, J. Murray, Nicholas Brewer, Mary Sullivan, Reiley & Ridgely, John Smith, Rachel A. Brewer, James Revell and John Wesley White.