

government of the said poor-house and farm in said county, as to them shall from time to time appear most proper and requisite; all which shall be conformed to and observed by said overseer, and all under his control, or the control of said trustees, under the penalties therein contained: Provided, always that the said rules, by-laws and orders, be in no way contrary to the laws of this State.

Proviso.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the said trustees shall dispose of all products arising from the cultivation of said land, over and above what may be necessary for the maintenance of the poor of the said poor house, and the amount of money arising from such sale or sales, after paying all the expenses of the said poor-house and farm, shall annually, on the first Tuesday of June, in each and every year, be returned on oath and paid over to the County Commissioners of Somerset county, to be applied for the benefit of said county, and in case the products of said farm shall be insufficient for the maintenance of the poor in said poor-house, the said County Commissioners of the said county, shall annually levy, as now provided by law for the use of the said trustees, such sum as in addition to said products shall be necessary.

Duty of Commissioners.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That when the said commissioners appointed by this act, shall have delivered the said farm and buildings to the said trustees, and the said paupers shall have been removed to said farm as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the said commissioners, or a majority of them, to sell and dispose of by public auction, the present poor-house of said county, and all the land with its appurtenances thereto attached, on such terms as they may deem best for the interest of the county, after first giving at least three weeks notice by advertisement, in such newspaper or newspapers as may be printed in Somerset county aforesaid, of the time, place, manner and terms of sale, and on the payment of the purchase money, they or a majority of them, shall convey the same in fee simple, to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, by a good and sufficient deed of bargain and sale, and the proceeds of said sale, shall be applied towards the payment of the land and improvements authorised by the first section of this act :

Present poor house to be sold.