

CHAPTER 13.

AN ACT amendatory of the act of Assembly passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-four, chapter eighty-seven, and entitled "an act to incorporate the Trustees of the Education Fund of the Baltimore Annual Conference." Passed February 10, 1858.

WHEREAS, by the act to which this is a supplement, certain persons therein named and their successors were created a corporation and body politic, with the usual powers in such cases, and authorized to take and hold, and invest certain funds, and pay over the income thereof to the Trustees of Dickinson College, as therein directed; And whereas, the control and direction of said corporation both by means of the appointment of its Trustees and otherwise, was by said act confided to the Baltimore Annual Conference; And whereas, the said Baltimore Annual Conference has been divided into two bodies, one whereof retaining that name, the other being designated by the appellation of "The East Baltimore Conference;" and by reason of such division it has become proper that each of said Conferences should hold an equal interest in the funds aforesaid; and that the same should be subject to their joint control and supervision in the manner hereinafter provided; Therefore,

Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the second section of the act to which this a supplement be amended so as to read as follows: Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for said corporation to have and to hold the said funds, whether the same shall be in money or other property, real or personal, or means now or hereafter raised and provided as aforesaid, or given by devise or bequest, and such other moneys and means as may hereafter be paid or transferred with the sanction of said Baltimore Annual Conference or said East Baltimore Conference, to said corporation, and it shall be the duty of said corporation, and Second section amended.
