CHAPTER 142.

AN ACT to refund to Thomas Gorsuch, of Baltimore county, a certain sum of money improperly paid by him into the Treasury of the State.

Passed March 4, 1858.

WHEREAS, it appears by the petition of Thomas Gorsuch, and the evidence accompanying the same, that he erroneously paid to the late Commissioner of the Land office, fifty-nine dollars and seventeen cents, for confiscated land, held by him for many years, and which land the State had been previously paid for: And whereas, by the act of eighteen hundred and fifty-three, chapter four hundred and fifteen, section five, the said Commissioner is allowed a commission of twenty-five per cent, upon all moneys paid
