

gun, and shall not immediately leave said premises upon the notification of the owner or occupier thereof; such person or persons, upon conviction before a justice of the peace of said county, shall be fined a sum not less than ten or more than fifty dollars, in the discretion of said justice, for each and every offence, and in default of payment, may be committed to the county jail, until the fine and all the costs of the proceedings are fully paid, and the said justices may also, in their discretion, hold the said offender or offenders to bail for his or their appearance before the next Circuit Court for said county, and upon presentment and conviction before said court, the said offender may be confined in the county jail, for not less than ten or more than thirty days, in the discretion of said court, and the informer shall be a competent witness in all such prosecutions.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the sheriff and constables of said county, upon complaint made, to arrest all persons violating the provisions of this act. Duty of Sheriff and Constables.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. In force.

CHAPTER 144.

AN ACT to extend the powers of the President and Commissioners of the village of Port Deposit. Passed March 4, 1858.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the president and commissioners of the village of Port Deposit shall have power to establish the limits, widths and grades of the streets, lanes and alleys of the said village, and to remove all obstructions therein, also to open new streets, alleys and lanes within the limits of the said village. The width of streets, lanes and alleys to be established.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said president and commissioners shall be authorised to President and Commissioners authorised.