CHAPTER 193.

AN ACT entitled an act to incorporate the trustees of the Particular Baptist Gunpowder Church of Carroll county. Passed March 4, 1858.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly, that on the twenty-seventh day of February, seventeen hundred and seventy, a certain Jonathan Plowman, conveyed to John Davis, (Pastor,) John Whitaker and Samuel Lane, Particular Baptists, a parcel of land containing about fifteen acres, for the sole use of a meeting house, for the worship of God forever; And whereas, by the act of eighteen hundred and twenty-eight, chapter nine, Thomas Layman, John Perigoy and Benjamin Buckingham, were incorporated by the name of the Trustees of the Particular Baptist Church in Baltimore county, to take charge of the above mentioned property; And whereas, two of the said Trustees have died, and the remaining one has removed from the neighborhood, by reason of which the meeting house has partly fallen down from neglect, and decay, and the congregation been broken up; And whereas, the old school, or Particular Baptist Church, at Black Rock, in Baltimore county, being the nearest church of the same
