

Circuit Court for Montgomery county, paid into the Treasury, in the years eighteen hundred and fifty-two and eighteen hundred and fifty-three, as tax on his office, as provided by the act of eighteen hundred and forty-six, chapter two hundred and fifty-three, the sum of two hundred and seventy-eight dollars and eighty-nine cents, and that in the same years, William Thompson of R., late Register of Wills of the same county, as tax on his office, paid into the Treasury, the sum of one hundred dollars; and it also appears to the General Assembly, that by the fortieth section of the third article, and the first section of the tenth article of the Constitution, it was the intention of the framers of that instrument, to provide a new mode, and abolish the old method of raising a revenue from said offices;

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the sum of two hundred and seventy-eight dollars and eighty-nine cents, be and the same is hereby appropriated, out of any unappropriated funds in the Treasury, for the use of James G. Henning, mentioned in the preamble of this bill, and the Treasurer is hereby authorised, upon the warrant of the Comptroller, to pay James G. Henning, the sum of two hundred and seventy-eight dollars and eighty-nine cents.

Sum appropriated.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the sum of one hundred dollars, be and is hereby appropriated for the use of the said William Thompson of R., and the Treasurer upon the warrant of the Comptroller, is hereby authorised to pay the said sum of one hundred dollars, to the said William Thompson of R., or to his order.

Treasurer authorised to pay.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

In force.