

CHAPTER 202.

AN ACT to make valid the acts of Hiram McCullough, as Commissioner under the act of eighteen hundred and twenty-eight, chapter one hundred and sixty-five.

Passed March 9, 1858.

WHEREAS, Hiram McCullough of Cecil county, was heretofore duly appointed by the Circuit Court for Cecil county, a Commissioner to take and perpetuate testimony, under the provisions of the act of Assembly, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-eight, chapter one hundred and sixty-five, and has duly qualified and acted as such Commissioner in sundry cases, but it does not appear that any record of said appointment, or of the qualification of said Hiram McCullough, as Commissioner as aforesaid, was made by the clerk of said court; And whereas, it is not proper that the rights of parties should be prejudiced by the said error or omission of the clerk; Therefore,

Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all acts of Hiram McCullough, of Cecil county, as Commissioner to take and perpetuate testimony, under the provisions of the act of Assembly, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-eight, chapter one hundred and sixty-five, up to the time of the passage of this act, be and they are hereby made as good, valid and effectual, as if the said appointment and qualification had been duly recorded according to law.

Made valid.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall go into effect from the date of its passage.

In force