

Mr. Peabody's
second letter.

still greater number of distinguished members of this community, with whom, from my long residence abroad, I have been denied the pleasure of intimate acquaintance.

These names have been communicated to the Trustees in a list for record, to be preserved by them for the purpose, so long as it may present persons qualified to perform the trust, of supplying the means of selection of the best citizens for such vacancies as must occur in the Board.

I venture to assure myself, gentlemen, that you will allow your names to be retained on that list for the contingency I have contemplated, and that you will regard this appeal to your aid, in that contingency, as a proof of my respect for the position you hold in the confidence of this community.

With the highest esteem,

I am gentlemen,

Your humble servant,

GEORGE PEABODY.
