

same, and if the said Company cannot agree with the owners of the land, they may require for the purposes aforesaid, or if the owners be infants, insane, married woman, or absent from the county where such land lies, then the Company may on application to a justice of the peace, of the county wherein the land lies, who shall issue his warrant to the sheriff of such county, commanding him to summon twelve good and lawful men, to meet on the premises on a day to be fixed, not less than ten days from the issuing of the warrant, and the said jury proceed to value all damages the owner of the land may sustain by the use and occupation of said Company, taking into view the benefits such owners may receive from the erection of said bridge, and the jury shall reduce their valuation of damages to writing, in the form of an inquisition, which shall contain a description of the land valued, the amount of damages if any, and the quantity of interest in the land which the said Company is to hold in such land, which inquisition shall be signed and sealed by the jury and sheriff, and returned to the Circuit Court for the county where the land lies, which court shall confirm or set aside said inquisition, and if the same shall be set aside, a new inquisition shall be ordered by said court, and on confirmation of any inquisition by the court, and the payment of the damages by the Company, the title to the land described in such inquisition, shall vest in said Company.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said Company shall have the same power to have valued by a jury any stone, earth or gravel, that they may require for building their bridges, or the works appertaining thereto, which is given by this act, to acquire land, and the same proceedings may be had; each juror before he acts as such, shall take an oath or affirmation, that he will faithfully and impartially, value the land or stone, earth or gravel, as the case may be, and that he will in making such valuation, take into account all benefits and damages, which the owner may receive from the building of such bridge.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Company to demand and receive tolls, at the said bridge, not exceed-

Jurors to make oath or affirm.

Rates of toll.