

one cent; to the education of the Indigent Blind, in addition to the fund already accumulated for that purpose, four thousand dollars; to the education of the Deaf and Dumb, three thousand five hundred dollars; to the payment of Pensions, five thousand dollars; to the Library for its augmentation, five hundred dollars; to the payment of Commissions to Attorneys, five thousand dollars; to the night watchmen to the Public Buildings, four hundred and twenty dollars each, eight hundred and forty dollars; to the person employed to take care of Public Buildings, three hundred and sixty dollars; to the superintendent of Public Buildings and grounds, one hundred dollars; to the Maryland Institute, for the promotion of the Mechanic Arts, five hundred dollars; to the superintendant of Public Buildings, &c., for rent of house for State Fire Engine, one hundred dollars; to the members of the Appeal Tax Court of Baltimore city, one hundred and fifty dollars; to the Register of the city of Baltimore, three hundred dollars; to the Commissioner of the Land Office, for compensation for services under chapter twenty-three, of the act of eighteen hundred and forty-one, fifty dollars; to the cost of printing annual Report of the Comptroller, five hundred dollars; to the expense of distributing bound copies of the Laws, Journals and Documents, and Maryland Reports, to the Clerks and Registers of Wills of this State, and to the Governors of the several States, seventy-five dollars; to the Executive for the Contingent Fund, provided in the Constitution, to be placed at his disposal, six thousand dollars; to the contingent fund of the Library, including the expense of postage, of portorage and freight, of stationery for the use of said office, of menial services and assistance, of advertising and printing, and all other incidental expenses, one thousand three hundred dollars; to the expense of binding the Laws, Journals and Public Documents of the present Session, twelve hundred dollars; to the Special Judges appointed in pursuance of the twenty-second section of the fourth Article of the Constitution, six thousand dollars; to the contingent expenses of the Treasury Department, one thousand dollars; to the printing of blank licen-

Sums appropriated.