

successors, not exceeding twenty-five acres of land, situate in said county for the use of a parsonage.

In force.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

CHAPTER 31.

Passed January 28, 1868.

AN ACT to make valid a deed from George Peters and James Murry, commissioners for opening streets in the city of Baltimore, and Miles White, to William N. Todd, bearing date the second day of July, eighteen hundred and fifty-five, and recorded among the land records of the city of Baltimore in liber E. D., No. 87, folio 420, &c.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, at the time of the execution of the deed referred to in the above caption, the said James Murry and George Peters being the commissioners for opening streets in the city of Baltimore, together with Miles White, executed and delivered a deed to William N. Todd, of and for the land and premises described as follows: beginning for the same on the north side of North avenue, at the distance of twenty-five feet east from Pennsylvania avenue, and at the division line between Mrs. Cunningham's lot and the lot formerly owned by Mrs. Williamson, running thence northeasterly, binding on said division line one hundred and ninety-one feet to the land belonging to Charles Wanenwecht, thence southeasterly binding on said land one hundred and sixty feet to North avenue, thence west binding on said North avenue thirteen feet six inches to William Eden's lot, thence northwesterly binding thence and on the ground of the Jews' burial ground seventy-two feet to the north corner of the lane belonging thereto, thence southeasterly still binding on the said lane sixty-one feet five inches

binding
two feet
And when
more co
the lan
And when quired
thereof
doubts
Todd's
stated,
cution
of the
has had sioners
capable
land re
period t
the act
passed
and fift
3d ther
real pr
months

SECTION
Assembly
said Geor
sioners, a
made as v
had been
cords of B intended that nothi
to prejudic
able consi
interest o
execution
SEC. 2.
take effect