

drawn by two horses, sixteen cents, and for either of the carriages last mentioned, with four horses, thirty-two cents, the like sums according to the number of horses drawing the same, for every cart or wagon whose wheels do not measure four inches in breadth, eight cents, and eight cents for each additional horse drawing such cart or wagon, for every cart or wagon whose wheels measure four inches in breadth drawn by one horse, four cents, and four cents for each additional horse, and the said Company, shall be permitted to charge the following rates of toll, at gate north of Leitersburg, on said road, for every score of sheep three cents, for every score of hogs three cents, for every score of cattle six cents, for every horse and his rider or led horse, two cents, for each sulkey, chaise or carriage, drawn by one horse, three cents, and three cents for every additional horse attached to such sulkey, chaise or carriage, for wagon or carts, whose wheels in breadth do not measure four inches, drawn by one horse, three cents, and three cents for each additional horse attached to such wagon or cart, and for every wagon or cart whose wheels in breadth measure four inches, drawn by one horse, two cents, drawn by two horses, three cents, for three horses five cents, for five horses eight cents, for six horses nine cents, and so in proportion for every additional horse.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That so much of the seventh section of the act of eighteen hundred and forty-six, chapter three hundred and thirty-three, prescribing the rates of toll on said road, that is inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Repealed.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the day of its passage.

In force.