

Commissioners may employ assistants.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the said County Commissioners, if they shall ascertain that the duties devolved upon them by this act shall become onerous, and interfere with the general jurisdiction of their office, may and they are hereby authorised to employ such aids and assistants as they may deem necessary, to provide for taking ample bonds and security for the faithful performance of the duties enjoined upon such aids and assistants and for the payment of such compensation to them, and for any just and proper and necessary expenses as may be unavoidable as they may deem just and proper; Provided, that nothing in this act shall be so construed as to apply to such portion or portions of the said Alms House property, as may hereafter be purchased by said county.

Proviso.

Passed March 6, 1858.

AN ACT to consummate the division of the joint property of the city and county of Baltimore.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by the act of 1853, chapter 253, entitled, an act to provide for carrying into effect in part the valuation and division of the joint property of the city and county of Baltimore, and for adjusting their mutual concerns, it is provided in the seventh section of said act that it shall be lawful for the County Commissioners of Baltimore county and for the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to purchase the almshouse property, or any part or parts thereof, at any sale thereof, to be made under the provisions of said act; And whereas, it has been agreed by the County Commissioners and the said Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, by authority of said act, to sell at public sale on the twenty-third day of March, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, a portion of the said almshouse property at public sale, and doubts
