

testify according to the exigency of the process, upon complaint by the said Fire Inspector to any justice of the peace of the State of Maryland, or to any one of the Judges of any of the courts for the city of Baltimore, it shall be lawful for such justice or judges to issue an attachment in the name of the State of Maryland, to compel the attendance of such witness, or that in case of attendance, upon the said witness refusing to testify, it shall be lawful for such justice or judge to issue an attachment in the name of the State of Maryland, to compel such witness to testify; and authority is hereby given to such justice or judge to impose a fine for such neglect or refusal not less than one dollar nor more than one hundred dollars, and upon refusal to pay such fine, to commit said witness to the jail of Baltimore city there to remain at labor until such fine be paid, or for the space of sixty days, whichever shall first happen, the cost of attachment to be the same as in cases of attachment before justices of the peace as for contempt.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That all fines imposed and collected hereby shall be paid to the Register for the use of the City. Fines.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That this act shall go into effect from and after its passage. In force.

CHAPTER 254.

AN ACT to incorporate the "Miller Coal Company." Passed March 2, 1858.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John Jamison, Oscar W. Sturtevant, Charles Trump, and such other persons as may become associated with them, in the manner hereinafter provided, shall be and they are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate, by the name of the Miller Coal Company, and by that name, shall have succession, and be able and capable to sue and be sued, to plead and Incorporated.