

a call of a Convention, the Governor shall issue his proclamation announcing the result to the people of the State, and ordering an election to be held in the several counties of this State, and in Baltimore city, on the second Wednesday of October, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, for Delegates to the Convention to frame a New Constitution and Form of Government.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That at the election to be held for Delegates to the Convention as prescribed in the third section of this act, the legal voters shall, by ballot, elect Delegates to a Convention; and each county, and Baltimore city, shall be entitled to the same number of Delegates to the Convention as they now have respectively in both Houses of the General Assembly of Maryland; and the laws relating to the election of Delegates to the General Assembly, shall in all respects govern and apply to the election of Delegates to the said Convention, and the said Convention shall determine on the validity of the election and qualification of its members; and any legal voter shall be eligible to a seat in said Convention.

Number of Delegates.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the Delegates elected to said Convention, shall meet at the city of Annapolis, on the first Wednesday of January, eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, and shall continue in session until the business for which they were convened shall be fully completed and finished; and the compensation of said Delegates to said Convention shall be four dollars per day during the session thereof, and the mileage now allowed by law to members of the House of Delegates; and said Convention shall have power to appoint such clerks and other officers as may be necessary to facilitate the business of said Convention, and the compensation of said clerks and other officers shall be the same as is now paid to similar clerks and officers of the House of Delegates; and the said sum of four dollars per day, and the mileage aforesaid to each Delegate to said Convention, and the pay aforesaid of the said clerks and other officers of said Convention, shall be paid to them respectively, in the same way and manner as the per diem and mileage of Delegates Compensation.