

out of said stock or otherwise, before any transfer of said stock can be made, and before any dividends can be paid upon the same, except by the special permission of the President and Directors of said Company, and when the said Company shall be organised, the amount due upon the subscription to its capital stock shall be paid in instalments at such times as the President and Directors may require the same to be paid, and to be secured in such manner as they may require, they giving at least sixty days notice of demand of any instalment or instalments in one newspaper printed or published in Kent county, and in default of payment of any instalment, the President and Directors may offer at public sale, so many of the shares of stock in default as may be sufficient to discharge the sum or sums then due on the same, and the purchaser thereof shall hold the same subject to the same regulations, and with the same right as if they had been originally subscribed by him.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the said Company shall have power to charge, demand, sue for and recover such prices or sums of money as they may fix or determine upon from time to time, for carrying or conveying passengers or freights, and for other things connected with their said business, and that they shall keep, set up in some public place in their said boats or vessels a tariff, or list of charges.

May have power to charge for passengers and freight.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the said Company shall have true and trusty agents, captains and servants, and that all grain, marketing or other articles of merchandise, and for every description of property committed to their care, the Company shall hold themselves liable; the dangers of the sea or waters, and fire alone excepted.

Liability.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall be construed to impair the rights of any person or persons to an action against said Company, their agents, workmen or servants for any damage done to his or her, or their property or person.

Not to be construed.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the President and Directors of said Company shall cause a report to be made annually, (or semi-annually, if they deem it expedient) to the stockholders of said

President and Directors to make annual report.