

of the clerk of said court, immediately on the receipt of said return, to open the same and to place the names of the persons summoned as Jurors, on separate ballots, and to draw the same, separately, from a box or other suitable receptacle, and to arrange the same, as drawn, upon separate lists as Grand or Petit Jurors, in the same manner as is now done by the Judge of said court, at the beginning of each term of session of same.

Copy of lists
of Jurors to be published.

Jurors serving
the first week
to be exempt
the second.

In force.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said clerk shall cause a copy of the said lists of Jurors, assorted as aforesaid, to be published in every newspaper printed within said county, for two successive weeks, the same to be inserted in each of them for the first time, in the issue thereof next after the said drawing and assortment.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That those persons summoned as Jurors aforesaid, who shall, in the said assortment, be allotted to serve during the second week of the holding of said court, and whose names shall be so published as aforesaid, shall be exempted from attending on said court during the first week of the holding thereof, unless specially required by the court to be in attendance.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from its passage.