SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

CHAPTER 374.

Passed March 8, 1858.

AN ACT to facilitate the collection of taxes in arrear in Baltimore county.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, William Pole and Pleasant Hunter, late sheriffs of Baltimore county, have not yet been able to complete the collection of the arrears of taxes placed in their hands according to law, and have made payments to the State and county treasurers on account of such taxes in advance, and in anticipation of their actual receipts; And whereas, it is right and proper that they should have the means of accomplishing the collection of all such taxes in arrear, as well as where they remain chargeable with or for the same, and where they have made payments in advance on account thereof as aforesaid; Therefore,

Shall proceed to collect arrearages of taxes.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William Pole and Pleasant Hunter, late sheriffs of Baltimore county, shall proceed with diligence to collect all the arrears of the State and county taxes remaining in their hands uncollected, and for that purpose, and until the collection thereof shall be completed, they may respectively exercise all the powers provided or mentioned in the eighth and twelfth sections of the act entitled an act to provide for the speedy collection of the State and county taxes in Baltimore county, and to authorise the County Commissioners of said county, to effect a loan in anticipation of the same, passed the ninth day of March, eighteen hundred and fifty-four, and all the provisions of said act, and of the supplements thereto, passed the tenth day of March, eighteen hundred and fifty-six, so far as
