

CHAPTER 382.

AN ACT relating to the collection of taxes in Harford county. Passed March 10, 1858.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the collectors of taxes in Harford county, shall have all the powers to collect the county taxes by distress or execution, which they now have to collect the State taxes, and the same course of proceedings shall be pursued; and that the county shall have till the first of August next, to make the levy for the present year. Empowered to enforce collections.

CHAPTER 383.

AN ACT to incorporate the Maryland Mutual Insurance Company of Baltimore. Passed March 10, 1858.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Galloway Cheston, William Crichton, George N. Eaton, J. J. Abrahams, William H. Brune, James J. Fisher, Horatio L. Whitridge, Charles Morton Steuart, Robert Lehr, Robert B. Kirkland, Otho H. Williams and James A. Hooper, their associates and successors are hereby made a corporation, by the name of Maryland Mutual Insurance Company of Baltimore, with full authority and power to make insurances on vessels, merchandise, freight, specie, bullion, commissions, profits, bank notes, bills of exchange and other evidences of debt, bottomry, ad respondentia interests and all other personal property, at sea on land or water, or connected with risk of conveyance by sea, land or water, and to lend money on bottomry and ad respondentia interests, and generally to transact all business, enter into all contracts, and take all security, for and relative to the objects aforesaid, and to cause said company to be re-insured, when deemed expedient. Incorporated.