

CHAPTER 385.

Passed March 9, 1858.

AN ACT authorising the Commissioners of Centreville, Queen Anne's county, to levy upon real property in said town a tax sufficient to pave the side-walks thereof.

Commissioners to notify.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Commissioners of the town of Centreville, in Queen Anne's county, shall, thirty days after the passage of this act, notify the owners of real property in said town each to pave with brick the side-walk extending along his or her lot or lots of ground that lies adjacent to any of the public streets in said town.

Commissioners authorised to levy.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That if after the expiration of sixty days from the time said notice shall have been given as aforesaid, any owner of real property in said town shall fail to comply with said notice, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to levy a tax upon the real property of said town, sufficient in their judgment to pave the side-walks thereof, said tax to be apportioned among the owners of the lots of ground remaining unpaved, in the proposition necessary to enable said commissioners to pave the side-walks along each of said lots.

Tax to be a lien upon property.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this tax so levied as aforesaid shall be a lien upon the property upon which it is levied, to be collected by the bailiff of said town by execution and sale, after a notice of sixty days, to be given by said bailiff to the owners of said property.
