

of the said married woman, and that the premium note given by such married woman and her husband shall be a lien upon the real estate so insured, and shall be as binding and effectual upon such married woman as if she were sole and unmarried.

CHAPTER 397.

AN ACT authorising the County Commissioners of Queen Ann's county, to levy an additional tax upon the assessable property in School District Number four, of said county.

Passed March 9, 1858.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland. That at the annual meeting of the taxable inhabitants of primary school district number four, of Queen Ann's county, called for the purpose of electing trustees for the school in said district, a majority of those present shall be authorised to determine the amount of money they will raise, not exceeding two hundred dollars, in addition to that now received under the act of eighteen hundred and fifty-four, chapter eighty-eight, to increase the salary of teacher, and defray the current expenses of the school in said district.

Amount to be raised not to exceed two hundred dollars.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the trustees of the school in said district, shall immediately after their election, ascertain the names of every individual holding property within the limits of said school district, and return a list of the same, on or before the first day of January, in each and every year, to the county commissioners, stating the additional sum to be levied upon the assessable property of said school district.

Trustees to furnish the Commissioners with a list of the names of the property holders within the district.

SEC 3. And be it enacted, That the county commissioners for said county, shall have this additional sum levied upon the assessable property of said school district, and cause the same to be collected, as other taxes are now collected, and paid

Commissioners authorised to levy.