CHAPTER 425.

Passed March 10, 1858.

AN ACT to continue the State's appropriation for the benefit of colonization.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by an act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-one, chapter two hundred and eighty-one, entitled an act relating to the people of color of this State, it was provided that the Governor and Council should appoint a board of managers consisting of three persons, members of Maryland State Colonization Society, and an annual appropriation was made to be applied by the said board of managers in removing emancipated slaves and free people of color to the Colony of Liberia, or elsewhere out of the United States, and in making preparations at said Colony, or elsewhere as the said managers might think best, which would seem to them expedient for the reception, accomodation and support of the persons to be removed until they could support themselves, and which said appropriation ceased at the end of the year eighteen hundred and fifty-one; And whereas, by another act of the
