

Vacancies—
how filled.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the commissioners aforesaid, or a majority of them, may meet together, from time to time as often as occasion may require, upon the business of said town, and not less than once in every three months, and if, during the year for which they may be elected, any of the commissioners should die, resign, remove from said town, or be otherwise disqualified, an election to fill the vacancy on ten days notice thereof being given by the commissioners shall be held, at which all persons qualified as is specified in the second section of this act shall be entitled to vote.

Clerk to be appointed—his duties.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have power to appoint a clerk, and assign his duties, and allow him such compensation for his services as they may think proper, and that all ordinances, passed by the said commissioners or a majority of them, shall, by their clerk, be entered in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, and shall be opened at all times for the inspection of any person interested, and copies of all ordinances shall be put up in the most public places of said town, that the same may be generally made known.

Fines—how recoverable.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That all fines and forfeitures under the ordinances of the said corporation shall be recoverable as small debts are recoverable out of court, before any Justice of the Peace.

Limits.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the limits of said town shall extend to the distance of three-eighths of a mile each way from the public square in said town, and the property within said limits shall be subject to such taxes and charges as may be deemed necessary by the said commissioners, or a majority of them, to support and maintain the expenses which may at any time be incurred in the improvement of said town.

Power to pass
by-laws and ordinances.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have full power to make all such by-laws, regulations and ordinances, not inconsistent with the laws and constitution of this State, as from time to time they may deem wise, equitable and expedient for the comfort, health, convenience and prosperity of the said town, and its inhabitants, for the pre-
