

perform divine worship at the meeting house on the east side of Jones's Falls, ground-rents or annuities in the city aforesaid, to the amount of six hundred dollars per annum, to remain as a perpetual fund for the education and schooling of poor youths: And whereas the general assembly being desirous to secure the accomplishment of the objects of the benevolent and generous donor as aforesaid, and to give perpetuity and constant succession to the said school, intended to be supported out of the funds aforesaid, have agreed to enact,

1. And be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That there shall be erected a school on the eastern side of Jones's Falls in the city of Baltimore; for the education of poor children in the elementary branches of knowledge, to be styled and named "M·Kimm's School."

School to be erected

2. And be it enacted, That the said school shall be under the direction and management of William Brown, Joseph Townsend, Ely Balderson, David Wilson, John Wilson, Rossiter Scott, Josiah Brown, Joshua Mott, John Dukehart, William Proctor, Samuel Register, and Joseph Brevitte, trustees, which said trustees, and their successors to be elected as hereinafter mentioned, shall for ever hereafter be, and they are hereby erected and established and declared to be, one body politic and corporate, with perpetual succession in deed and in law, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, by the name, style and title of "The Trustees of M·Kimm's School," by which name and title the said trustees, and their successors, shall be competent and capable in law and equity to take to themselves, and their successors, for the said school, all those annuities, ground rents or lots of ground, on which annual rents have been reserved, that may be conveyed to them the said trustees by the above named Isaac M·Kimm and William D. M·Kimm, pursuant to the request and desire of their late deceased father John M·Kimm, and also any other estate in lands, tenements, hereditaments, goods, chattels, monies, or other effects, that may be given, granted or bequeathed, by any other person or persons whomsoever, provided the same do not exceed in the whole the yearly value or sum of three thousand dollars, and to receive the rents, profits and issues, arising therefrom, and to apply the same to the proper use and support of said school.

Trustees appointed and incorporated

3. And be it enacted, That in case of a vacancy happening among the said trustees by death, resignation, refusal to act, removal from the city of Baltimore, and by ceasing to frequent the meeting house on the east side of Jones's Falls as a place of public worship, the said trustees shall, as soon thereafter as shall seem proper, proceed to fill up such vacancy from among the society of friends, or of those professing their religious principles, who meet or assemble for public worship in the meeting house on the eastern side of Jones's Falls, and the person having the greatest number of votes among the trustees assembled for the purpose, shall be declared as duly elected.

Vacancies, how to be supplied

4. And be it enacted, That the property that may be thus conveyed to the trustees as aforesaid by the said Isaac M·Kimm and William D. M·Kimm, shall be held in the name of the trustees of said school, and no part thereof, except the interest, rent or income, shall be disposed of by the said trustees, but that the Property to be held in name of trustees