CHAP. CXXXVII.

An Act respecting certain Roads in Prince George's County. Passed Feb 12 1821

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petitions of sundry inhabitants of Prince-George's county, that part of the road leading to Magruder's warehouse, at a place called The Warehouse Hill, and through the lands of Marcus S. Waring and Henry Compton, in Matapony Hundred, is often not passable, and that the same will be of great expense if made so, and that a public road commencing at a place known by the name of White's Hill, and running through the land of James Richardson, William W. Cage, and part of the land of the late General Covington, until it intersects a road leading from the late dwelling place of the said late general Covington, now occupied by Richard T. Hall, to the Aquasco mills, is of no public use or benefit whatsoever; Therefore,

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court of Prince George's county be and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to appoint commissioners to view, alter and change, all that part of the road leading to Magruder's warehouse, at a place called The Warehouse Hill, and running Commissioners to be appointed to view road, &c
