

laws inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed. Dec. Ses. 1821.

CHAPTER 206.

An act supplementary to the act entitled, An act for the benefit of the infant children of Gerard Briscoe, late of Charles county, deceased, passed in the year eighteen hundred and thirteen, chapter 152. Passed Feb. 22, 1822.

WHEREAS, It appears to this general assembly, that the orphans' court of Charles county, in pursuance of the power vested in them by the original act to which this is a supplement, did authorise and appoint Elizabeth Briscoe, who intermarried with a certain Robert Brawner, to carry into execution the provisions of the said act: And whereas, the said trust was in part executed during the life of the said Elizabeth, and it is necessary that a trustee should be appointed to consummate the trust so in part executed by the said Elizabeth—Therefore, Preamble.

BE IT ENACTED By the General Assembly of Maryland, That the orphans' court of Charles county, be and they are hereby directed and empowered to appoint the said Robert Brawner to complete the said trust; and it shall be the duty of the said court to take the bond of the said Robert Brawner with such security and such penalty as the court shall approve, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as trustee, and the deed or deeds which shall be executed by the said trustee shall be effectual to convey all the right, title and estate which was in the infant children of the said Gerard Briscoe. Orphans' court to appoint.

CHAPTER 207.

An act to lay out and make public a road leading from Bean Town, in Charles county, to Mattawoman Swamp, between the plantations of Theodore Dyer and Eleanor Townsend, where the said swamp divides Charles and Prince-George's counties. Passed Feb. 22, 1822.

SEC. 1. BE IT ENACTED By the General Assembly of Maryland, That William P. Ford, Henry W. Hardy and James M. Murry, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to survey and lay out a road in Charles county, beginning at Bean Town, thence in a straight direction to Mattawoman Swamp where said Swamp divides Charles and Prince-George's counties, between the plantations of Theodore Dyer and Eleanor Townsend, not exceeding thirty feet in width; Provided, That the said road shall not pass through the buildings, yards, gardens or orchards of any person without the consent of the owner or owners thereof. Commissioners to lay out.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said commissioners shall cause a plot and certificate of said road when so surveyed and laid out, to be made and returned to the levy court of Charles county at their next sitting thereafter; whereupon it shall be their duty to levy upon the assessable property of said county, a sum of money such as they shall deem necessary to defray the expense incurred in laying out said road; and the levy court of said county shall appoint an overseer or overseers to open and clear said road agreeably to the plot and certificate aforesaid, and the said road when opened and cleared as aforesaid, shall be and the same is hereby declared to be forever thereafter a public road, and shall be kept in repair as other public roads in said county. Plot—expense to be levied.