

That if any person shall entice any minor from the care, direction, service or employment of the father, guardian or master of such minor, or shall induce or encourage any minor to disobey any lawful command of his or her father, guardian or master, or shall permit any minor to resort to, enter or remain in any house, store, shop, apartment or dwelling used or occupied by such person, after notice from the father, guardian or master of such minor prohibiting the same, such person shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of twenty dollars, the one half thereof to the use of the state, and the other half thereof to the use of the informer who shall sue for such forfeiture, to be recovered before a single justice of the peace by action of debt in the name of the state of Maryland, in the same manner as small debts are recoverable, with the same right of appeal to the county court; and the father, guardian or master of such minor, shall also be entitled to recover damages in action of trespass upon the case against any person so offending.

Dec. Ses. 1821.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the state's part of the aforesaid penalty shall be paid over by the officer collecting or receiving the same, to the clerk of the county in which said penalty is recovered, and by such clerk accounted for and paid over to the treasurer of the shore on which such clerk resides.

State's part of penalties.

CHAPTER 220.

An act relative to the road made by the United States, from Cumberland on the Potomac River, to or near Wheeling on the Ohio river.

Passed Feb. 21, 1822.

BE IT ENACTED By the General Assembly of Maryland, That the congress of the United States shall have full power and authority to impose such reasonable tolls on so much of the road made under and by virtue of an act of Congress entitled, An act to regulate the laying out and making a road from Cumberland in the state of Maryland, to the state of Ohio, as lies with the state of Maryland, as shall be in their judgment sufficient to keep the said road in good and perfect repair, and to provide for the collection of such tolls, in such manner as the congress of the United States may in their wisdom deem right and equitable.

Congress may impose tolls.

CHAPTER 221.

A further supplement to the act entitled, An act to regulate the inspection of Salted Fish.

Passed Feb. 22 1822.

SEC. 1. BE IT ENACTED By the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the mayor of the city of Baltimore shall, by and with the advice and consent of the council, appoint and commission for the city aforesaid, a person of integrity, skilful in the goodness, quality and well curing of salted fish, who shall have the same power, and have the same fees as are allowed the inspector appointed by the original act to which this is a further supplement, and shall in all respects be governed by the said original act and the several supplements thereto; which said inspector shall hold his appointment during the pleasure of the Mayor.

Mayor may appoint inspector.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That all such parts of the said original act and the several supplements thereto, so far as they relate to the appointment of a deputy inspector by the principal inspector, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Repeal.