Court may grant license on petition &c.

SEC. 1. BE IT ENACTED By the General Assembly of Maryland, That upon application by petition in writing to any county court, by any citizen thereof, for a license to keep an ordinary or to retail spiritous liquors, and the payment of the sum chargeable upon the same, and security appearing, the court shall be and hereby is empowered to grant the license under the same rules and regulations as are prescribed for the granting of licenses when personal application is made; and the recognizance entered into by the security aforesaid, with the petitioner named therein as principal, shall be as equally binding and obligatory upon the said petitioner, as if he had been personally present; and the license thus granted shall be of as full force and effect as though it had been granted in the manner heretofore directed, any law or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That where any license has been or may hereafter be granted, and shall not have expired at the death of the party so obtaining the same, it shall and may be lawful for the heirs, executors or administrators of the said party, to enjoy all the privileges which said license conferred on the party who obtained the same; Provided, The said heirs, executors or administrators as the case may be, shall give to the clerk of the court two securities to be approved of by said clerk; and the heirs, executors or administrators of the said person who shall apply for and obtain a license, and comply with the provisions of the original act to which this is a supplement, then and in that case the clerk shall allow for and admit the proportion of price of the original license as remains unexpired at the term of granting said license to the heirs, executors, and administrators aforesaid, as part of the consideration for said license.

Heirs &c. to enjoy benefit of license.

Proviso.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That this act shall not extend to any other counties in this state than the counties of Frederick, Washington and Allegany.

Operation—where to extend.
