

vious to her application for the benefit of the said laws, and that her want of residence in this state shall not prevent her from obtaining the full benefit of the said laws; Provided always, that in every other respect she comply with the conditions of the said insolvent laws as fully as if she had resided the proper length of time in the state of Maryland and this law had not passed, and that she also satisfy the judge of the orphans' court of said county to whom she may apply, that she did not come into this state with an intention to take the benefit of said insolvent laws.

Dec. Ses. 1822

Proviso.

CHAPTER 186.

An act, entitled, A supplement to an act for the relief of the poor in Saint Mary's county.

Passed Feb. 22, 1823.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the justices of the levy court for Saint Mary's county, be, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to keep as many out pensioners as they in their wisdom may think proper; Provided, no such pension shall exceed the sum of thirty dollars, for each and every out pensioner so allowed.

Levy court authorised.

2. And be it enacted, That the said levy court, be, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to levy on the assessable property of the said county, such sums of money, as would be required to carry into effect this act.

Levy.

CHAPTER 187.

An act for the relief of James Delany, of the city of Baltimore.

Passed Feb. 22, 1823.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That James Delany of the city of Baltimore, be, and he is exempted from the provisions of the insolvent laws of this state, which requires a residence in this state of two years; Provided however, that the said James Delany shall not receive the benefit of said insolvent laws unless he comply with all the other terms and conditions of said laws, and that he also satisfy the court or commissioners to whom he may apply, that he did not come into this state, for the purpose of applying for the benefit of said laws.

Exempted.

Proviso.

CHAPTER 188.

An act for the extension of Forrest street in the city of Baltimore.

Passed Feb. 22, 1823.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the mayor and city council of Baltimore shall have full power and authority, if they shall deem it expedient, to pass any ordinance or ordinances for the opening and extension of Forrest street, in the city of Baltimore, and to make such provisions for the assessment of damages and the collection and payment of the same, as shall in their judgment be most effectual for that purpose.

Powers grant] ed.

CHAPTER 189.

An act to incorporate the visitors of a school in Baltimore county.

Passed Feb. 22, 1823.

WHEREAS it hath been represented to this General Assembly, that a certain Thomas Tolly did, by deed of indenture bearing date the certain day of September, seventeen hundred and twenty-four, sell and convey to the Rev. William Tebbs, Col. John Dorsey, William Hambleton, John Stokes, Thomas Sheredine and Roger Matthews, as visitors of Baltimore county school, and their successors for ever, a tract of land called Scholars' Plains, being part of a tract of land called Richardson's Outlet, containing one hundred acres of land, for Preamble.