

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

CHAPTER 68.

Dec Ses. 1822

A supplement to the act, entitled, An act to incorporate the managers of Back Creek school.

Passed Jan. 23, 1823.
Preamble.

WHEREAS the trustees of Washington Academy have represented that a greater number of trustees might be advantageous to the said academy, and have by their petition prayed that the number may be increased to twenty-five, and that the persons hereinafter mentioned be appointed additional trustees of said academy.

Additional trustees.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William Williams, jun. William Bounds, John Handy, Charles Jones, James Polk, George Jones (of Robert) and Joshua Bratton, are hereby appointed additional trustees of Washington Academy, and that the number of the trustees of said academy shall hereafter be twenty-five, and that the said trustees and their successors shall and may at all times hereafter fill up any vacancy that may be, by election.

Qualify, &c.

2. And be it enacted, That the persons appointed, or who may be elected, in pursuance of this act, shall qualify in the same manner and upon such qualifications, have, and be invested with all the powers and authority, which the present trustees have and are invested with by the said act, for incorporating the managers of Back Creek school.

Quorum.

3. And be it enacted, That after the passage of this act, any eight or more of the said trustees shall be a quorum, and are hereby empowered to meet at Washington Academy, from time to time, and when they shall so have met may do any act, matter, or thing which a majority of twenty-five trustees might do, any thing in any law to contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER. 69.

Passed Jan. 24, 1823.

An act to authorise the trustees of the poor of Cecil county, to dispose of certain lands therein mentioned, and to purchase other lands, &c.

Empowered to sell.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the trustees of the poor of Cecil county, or a majority of them, by and with the consent of the justices of the levy court of said county, be, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to sell, at public or private sale, the land, or any part thereof, as they or a majority of them shall think fit, heretofore purchased to supply the poorhouse in said county with fuel; and to apply the proceeds arising therefrom to the purchase of such other land as they shall think fit.

Deed.

2 And be it enacted, That the trustees of the poor of said county are hereby authorised and directed, after any sale made as aforesaid, to execute a deed of conveyance to the purchaser or purchasers of said land, and when the same shall be recorded as directed by law for the recording of deeds, it shall be valid and effectual to pass to the purchaser or purchasers, all the right, title and interest of said county in and to the same; and the trustees of the poor as aforesaid, shall also be entitled to demand and receive from the person or persons from whom any land shall be purchased as aforesaid, a good and sufficient deed of conveyance, vesting the right, title and interest in and to the same, in the trustees of the poor and their successors, for the use and benefit of the poor of said county forever.
