

enable them duly and fully in the law to execute all things touching and concerning the design and intent of their said corporation, for the benevolent succour, relief and good order of its members, and the widows and orphans of deceased members of the said society, agreeably to the constitution and such rules and by-laws as may be established by the said society.

Dec Ses. 1822

8. And be it enacted, That no member of the said society, shall, in his individual capacity, be answerable for any losses, deficiencies or failures of the joint funds of the said society, for any more or larger sum or sums of money whatsoever, than to the current amount by him payable into the common fund of the society.

Exemption.

9. And be it enacted, That if at any time it may be deemed necessary to dissolve this society, a proposition to that effect shall be laid on the table, in writing, at a stated meeting of the society, and may be discussed at the next stated or special meeting, but shall not be finally decided on until it has been two full months before the society, and shall not take effect unless three fourths of the members residing within the city of Baltimore are in favour thereof.

Dissolution.

CHAPTER 90.

An act for the benefit of William Usselton and Simon Beck, of Kent county, soldiers of the revolution.

Passed Feb 1, 1823.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court of Kent county be, and they are hereby authorised and required to levy annually upon the assessable property of said county, so long as they may deem it necessary, a sum not exceeding fifty dollars, for the support and maintainance of William Usselton, and Simon Beck, all of said county, and that it shall be the duty of the collector of said county, to collect and pay over to the said William Usselton and Simon Beck or their order, the sum so levied, in equal proportions for their said benefit.

Levy $50.

CHAPTER 91.

A supplement to the act, entitled, An act to repeal parts of the acts of assembly therein mentioned.

Passed Feb 1, 1823.

Section. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all fines hereafter to be imposed by magistrates upon persons who profanely swear or curse in their presence, in virtue of the provisions of the act of 1723, chapter 16, shall be placed by them in the hands of the constable or constables of the hundred wherein the said offenders may reside for collection, and it shall be the duty of the said constable or constables to collect the said fines by execution or otherwise, and make a return to the magistrate or magistrates to be by them paid over to the levy courts of their respective counties.

Fine for swearing.

2. And be it enacted, That all such parts of the aforesaid act of assembly, passed at September session, 1723, chapter 16, as are inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

Repeal.

CHAPTER 92.

An act for the relief of Thomas I Perry, late of Allegany county.

Passed Feb 1, 1823.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the judges of any county court of this state be, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to extend to Thomas I. Perry, late of Allegany county, but now of the state of Virginia, the benefit and relief of an act passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five, en-

Relief extended.