

Dec Ses. 1822

Proviso.

titled, "An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," and the supplementary acts thereto, in the same manner and with as full force and effect as if he was a citizen of this state: Provided, the said Thomas I. Perry shall prove to the said judges that he has returned to the state with a bona fide intention of settling and remaining as a citizen therein, and not with the view of obtaining the benefit of said laws, and also that the said Thomas I. Perry shall in all respects comply with all the other provisions of said act, and the several supplements thereto.

CHAPTER. 93.

Passed Feb. 1, 1823.

An act relinquishing the right of the State of Maryland to certain lands therein referred to, unto the heirs of Richard Stringer, deceased.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it has been represented to this general assembly by the petition of John Stringer of Anne-Arundel county, that his father Richard Stringer, by deed of indenture bearing date on the fourteenth day of September, seventeen hundred and ninety-two, conveyed in trust to a certain Archibald Moncrief of Baltimore county, certain lands lying in Anne-Arundel county, which said trust was not completed during the life time of the said Richard Stringer, but the same hath been completed by John Stringer one of the heirs of the said Richard Stringer, since the decease of the said Richard: AND WHEREAS, it also appears to this legislature, that the said Archibald Moncrief, departed this life without reconveying the lands mentioned in the deed aforesaid, or any part thereof, and without leaving any heirs, citizens of the United States capable of inheriting the same, whereby the legal title to the said lands, or such part thereof as remained unsold at the death of the said Archibald Moncrief, become vested in the state of Maryland: And it appearing reasonable and just that the right of the state to the lands mentioned in the deed of trust aforesaid, or such parts thereof as remained unsold at the death of the said Archibald Moncrief should be relinquished unto the heirs of the said Richard Stringer, deceased; therefore,

Right relinquished.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all the right, title claim and interest of the state of Maryland in and to any and all lands which said state heretofore acquired any right to by virtue and in pursuance of a deed of trust executed by Richard Stringer of Anne-Arundel county, on the seventeenth day of September, seventeen hundred and ninety-two, to Archibald Moncrief of Baltimore county, be and the same are hereby relinquished, and the title of the state aforesaid, fully invested in the heirs of the said Richard Stringer, deceased, in as full and an ample a manner, as if the said Richard Stringer, deceased, never had have executed the deed of trust aforesaid, any law to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall in any way effect the title or claim of any person or persons in and to the lands and premises aforesaid, acquired before the passage of this act.
