

CHAPTER 158.

An act for the relief of Julian Coleman, of the City of Baltimore.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said Julian Coleman, be, and she is hereby divorced from bed, board and mutual cohabitation, with her husband Edward Coleman.

2. And be it enacted, That all the right and title, which the said Edward Coleman by virtue of his marriage with the said Julian Coleman may become entitled to, in any way or manner whatever, be, and the same is hereby annulled and made void, and that the said Julian Coleman be, and she is hereby declared capable to have, take, hold, receive, sue for and recover, by compromise, suit or suits, in law or equity, all such property, in as full and ample a manner as if she were a feme sole, and had never been married, and to hold, use and enjoy the same for her own use and benefit, and the same to dispose of according to her will and pleasure, without the molestation, interference, hindrance, or consent of her said husband, or of any person or persons, claiming, by, from, or under her said husband, in the same manner she could or might have done were she a feme sole.

3. And be it enacted, That the said Julian be, and she is hereby declared to be entitled to the custody and guardianship of the person of her son Thomas Kenedy Coleman, without the molestation, let, hindrance, interference or consent of the said Edward Coleman.

4. And be it enacted, That the said Edward Coleman shall not be liable for any debts to be hereafter contracted by the said Julian Coleman.

Dec.Ses. 1823

Passed Feb. 20, 1824.
Divorce.

Legal capacity.

Guardianship

Liability.

CHAPTER 159.

An act for the relief of Jemima Floyd, of Saint Mary's county.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said Jemima Floyd, be, and she is hereby divorced from bed, board, and mutual cohabitation, with her husband Jesse Floyd.

2. And be it enacted, That all the right and title which the said Jesse Floyd, by virtue of his marriage with the said Jemima Floyd, may become entitled to, in any way or manner whatever, be, and the same is hereby annulled and made void, and that the said Jemima Floyd, be, and she is hereby declared capable to have, hold, take, receive, sue for and recover, by compromise, suit or suits, in law or equity, all such property, in as full and ample a manner as if she were a feme sole, and had never been married, and to hold, use and enjoy, the same for her own use and benefit, and the same to dispose of according to her will and pleasure, without the molestation, interference hindrance, or consent of her said husband, or of any person or persons, claiming, by, from, or under her said husband, in the same manner she could or might have done were she a feme sole.

3. And be it enacted, That the said Jesse Floyd shall not be liable for any debts to be hereafter contracted by the said Jemima Floyd.

Passed Feb. 20, 1824.
Divorce.

Legal capacity.

Liability.

CHAPTER 160.

An act to reduce the price of the State's lands in Allegany county.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all vacant lands in Allegany county, may hereafter be taken up by common or special warrant, or warrant of resurvey, in the usual manner, at one shilling and three pence per acre, one half to be paid at the time of obtaining the warrant and the other half on the return of the certificate; Provided, that all warrants already issued shall be compounded on agreeably to the law under which they were respectively obtained.

Passed Feb. 21, 1824.
Price of land.