CHAPTER 68.

A supplement to an act entitled, an act to incorporate the Stockholders of the Commercial and Farmer's Bank of Baltimore.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, and the assent of the stockholders thereto, as hereinafter provided, the capital stock of the Commercial and Farmers Bank of Baltimore, shall consist of six hundred and sixty-six thousand six hundred and sixty-six dollars and sixty-six and two third cents, money of the United States, divided into shares of thirty-three dollars and thirty-three and one-third cents; and that the residue of the number of shares reserved for the use of the state of Maryland, by the act to which this is a supplement, deducting the number actually subscribed for by the state under that act, be still reserved for the use of the state, to be subscribed for at thirty-three dollars and thirty-three cents and one-third. And whereas, there yet remains shares in the said bank, which are subscribed for, and on which thirty dollars only have been paid—
Therefore,

2. Be it enacted, That such shares shall hereafter be rated at twenty dollars, and that the holders thereof may, in the manner provided for in the act to which this is a supplement, pay the further sum of thirteen dollars and thirty-three and one-third cents, and shall thereupon be entitled to a certificate of full paid shares.

3. And be it enacted, That the president and directors shall or may, as often as any money or property may be recovered or received for, on account of the debts, dues and demands, included in the estimate of those losses by which the said capital stock has been reduced, cause a dividend thereof to be made among the stockholders entitled to the same.

4. And be it enacted, That this act shall be by the said president and directors, laid before a general meeting of the stockholders of said bank convened for that purpose, after notice of such meeting shall have been published, the time and in the manner prescribed by the thirteenth section of the original act to which this is a supplement; and if such a majority of the stockholders as is required by said original act in the election of directors, shall assent to and accept this act, it shall then be considered, and be in full force and virtue.

Passed Jan. 16, 1823.
