

as are held by the said Samuel Colston in virtue of his intermarriage with his deceased wife Rebecca Colston, and that he be authorised to cut and sell such decayed or decaying wood or timber belonging to the said land or parcels of land under the authority of the Orphans' court of Talbot county, agreeably to the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement.

Dec. Ses. 1823

2. And be it enacted, That the proceeds of the sale of such wood or timber be applied to the support and education of such of the children of the said Samuel Colston and his deceased wife Rebecca, as may reside with him.

Application of the money.

3. And be it enacted, That all the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, not inconsistent with those of this act, be, and the same are hereby declared to be in full force and effect.

Former act enforced.

CHAPTER 128.

An act to confirm an act entitled, "an act to repeal an act entitled, "an act to alter, change and repeal such parts of the Constitution and form of Government of this State, as relate to the division of St. Mary's county into four election districts," passed at December session, 1822.

Passed Feb 10, 1824.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That an act entitled, "an act to repeal an act entitled, "an act to alter, change and repeal such parts of the Constitution and form of Government of this state as relate to the division of St. Mary's county into four election districts, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-two, be, and the same is hereby confirmed.

Confirmation

CHAPTER 129.

An act for the relief of Thomas Philips.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this general assembly by the petition of Thomas Philips, of New Castle County, in the State of Delaware, that he is actually confined in the jail of Cecil county for a debt due the bank of Elkton; that his property both real and personal in Delaware during his confinement, has been sold at a price much below its real value to satisfy judgments against him, and that for the want of the residence of two years, as required by law, he is unable to obtain the benefit of the insolvent laws of this state; Therefore,

Passed Feb 10, 1824.
Preamble.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the judges of Cecil county court, be, and they are hereby authorised and required to extend to Thomas Philips, of New Castle County, in the State of Delaware, upon his application, the benefit of the act of assembly passed at November session eighteen hundred and five, entitled an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and the several supplements thereto, without requiring of the said Thomas Philips proof of residence within the state of Maryland, for two years previous to his application, provided always that the said Thomas Philips shall comply with all the other requisitions of the said laws, and shall also satisfy the said judges that he did not come into this state with the intention of taking the benefit of said laws.

Insolvency.

CHAPTER 130.

An act to provide for the further extension of Pratt Street, in the city of Baltimore.

Passed Feb. 11, 1824.
Commissioners.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Solomon Betts, David Williamson, Stewart Brown, Robert C. Long, Henry Brice, James Mosher and James Barroll, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners for laying out and surveying Pratt street, from South Frederick street, to market space, in such manner