

Dec Ses 1824 doubted whether the county court of Anne Arundel county can have jurisdiction in such suits as have been commenced against persons heretofore considered as inhabitants in Anne Arundel county, who reside on the south side of the new line; Therefore,

Suits provided for.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the county court of Anne Arundel county are hereby authorised and required to carry on to final judgment all such suits as may have been commenced, before the passage of the act to which this is a supplement against any person, who may reside between the old line between the counties of Anne-Arundel and Calvert and the line established by the law to which this is a supplement.

Executions.

2. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the sheriff of Anne Arundel county, and he is hereby required to levy executions in the same manner he might heretofore do, upon the persons or property of the inhabitants between the old and new line aforesaid, in all cases in which the county court of Anne Arundel have heretofore given judgment or may hereafter give judgment in pursuance of the authority conferred by the preceding section of this act.

Collections.

3. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the collector of Anne Arundel county, and he is hereby required to complete his collection of all taxes due within the territory heretofore considered a part of Anne Arundel county, on the south side of the line established by the law to which this is a supplement.

CHAPTER 177.

An act to divorce Caroline R. Elvins of Baltimore City.

Passed Feb 25, 1825.
Divorce.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Caroline R. Elvins of Baltimore city, be, and she is hereby divorced from bed, board, and mutual cohabitation with her husband William Elvins.

Control annulled.

2. And be it enacted, That the said William Elvins shall not by virtue of his marriage with the said Caroline, be authorised to have or claim any right or interest in the estate, real, personal or mixed of the said Caroline, to be by her acquired after the passage of this act.

CHAPTER 178.

An act to compensate the Adjutant General of this State.

Passed Feb 26, 1825.
Salary $500

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of January, eighteen hundred and twenty-five, the Adjutant General of this state be paid the annual salary of five hundred dollars, from any unappropriated money in the treasury, as compensation for his services, in issuing orders, receiving and making out correct returns of the militia, and keeping regular files of such returns in his office.

Annual report.

2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Adjutant General to report annually to the executive of this state, on the first Monday in January, the strength of the militia, designating all such commanding officers of corps, extra battalions, or companies, as have disobeyed his orders to make out their muster rolls.

Resignations.

3. And be it enacted, That all resignations of commissions be made through the Adjutant General of this state.