CHAPTER 190.

An act to explain and amend the act entitled, "An Act to tax certain offices."

Passed Feb.
25, 1825.
Preamble.

Whereas, it would seem from the expressions used in the act, entitled, "An Act to tax certain offices," passed at the last session, that the several officers are to pay a tax, if the amount received by them respectively, in the one half of any year, shall exceed at the rate of fifteen hundred dollars per annum, although the amount by them respectively received for the other half of said year, may not amount together with the receipts of the first half year, to above the sum of fifteen hundred dollars per annum; and whereas the obvious intention of the Legislature was that a tax should only be paid on such sum of money as should be received by any of the said officers for fees accruing, due in any one year over and above the sum of fifteen hundred dollars; Therefore,
