Passed Feb. 18, 1825.
Preamble.

Whereas, doubts have arisen upon the construction of an act of the general assembly of Maryland, passed at December session, one thousand eight hundred and twenty three, entitled, An act to establish the divisional lines between Anne Arundel and Calvert counties, as to the beginning of the said divisional lines; And whereas, it was the intention of the general assembly to settle and determine the said divisional lines, in such manner as to prevent any future difficulty with regard to the same; Therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said divisional lines between Anne Arundel and Calvert counties, shall begin on the south side of Samuel Owing's house, at the mouth of a creek called in the act to which this is a supplement, Muddy creek or Red Lyon's creek, which said creek shall be taken and understood to mean the same creek stated by the commissioners appointed by the act of the last session to ascertain the divisional lines between the said counties in their report to the legislature at its present session, to be known by the name of South creek or Muddy creek, and running by and with said creek to the head thereof, thence as directed by the act to which this is a supplement.
