

process against the person, lands, tenements, goods, chattles, rights or credits of the said Beal C. Stinchcomb, in the same manner as such plaintiff or plaintiffs might or could do if this law had not been passed; and in case any writ or writs of capias ad satisfaciendum shall have been issued on said judgment or judgments, then in the same manner also as if no such writ had ever issued.

Dec Ses 1824

CHAPTER 37.

An act to authorise the Levy Court of Washington county, to levy a sum of money, for the purpose of purchasing and providing a farm, for the better and more economical support of the poor of Washington county.

Passed Jan. 19, 1825.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for the levy court of Washington county, (not less than five members of the same concurring) to purchase a tract or tracts of land, for the accommodation of the poor of said county, at such time or times as they may deem expedient, and to erect thereon all proper and necessary buildings, and the same to provide with all requisite and suitable stock, farming utensils, and whatever in their judgment, the accommodation of the poor and the interest of the said county may require.

Levy court authorised to purchase, &c

2. And be it enacted, That the said court, at such time, and on such terms as they shall deem expedient, may sell and dispose of the present poor-house, and the lots of ground thereunto belonging and apply the proceeds of such sale to the payment of the debt which may be incurred under the authority of the preceding section.

To sell, &c.

3. And be it enacted, That the levy court of said county, may from time to time prescribe the mode in which the products of said farm shall be disposed of, and accounted for, by the trustees of the poor, and may establish such rules and regulations for the government of the poor, and for the management of the lands and other property purchased under the authority of this act as the comfort of the poor, and the interest of the county may require.

To regulate the establishment.

4. And be it enacted, That the levy court of the county aforesaid, be, and they are hereby authorised to levy upon the assessable property of said county, such sum or sums of money as may be necessary to carry into effect the objects of this act, provided that the sum levied shall not exceed fifteen hundred dollars in any one year, and provided that before a levy shall be made for the objects of this bill, the levies heretofore authorised for the erection of the new court-house and jail, shall be ended and done.

Levy of 1500 dollars per year

Proviso.

CHAPTER 38.

An act for the re-valuation of the assessable property in Prince Georges county.

Passed Jan. 20, 1825.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the commissioners of the tax for Prince Georges county, be, and they are hereby authorised and directed to meet at upper Malborough, in said county, immediately after the passage of this act, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable; and proceed agreeably to the provisions of an act passed at November Session, eighteen hundred and twelve, entitled, "An Act for the valuation of real and personal property in the several counties of this state."

Re-assessment directed.