

the levy court of Frederick county, under the original act, proceeded to carry into effect the provisions of the original act, by running and making the said divisional line, between the said counties; and there being some doubts whether the commissioner who acted, and had been appointed by the levy court of Frederick county, under the original act, could legally act in conjunction with the commissioners appointed by the levy court of Washington county, under the supplementary act; Therefore,

Dec. Ses 1824

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court of Frederick county, be, and is hereby authorized, to appoint three commissioners, on or before the first day of April next, who are hereby authorized and required forthwith, to examine the said divisional line, as run and marked as aforesaid; and if in their opinion the said divisional line, as run and marked, is done agreeably to the intention of the original act, in ascertaining and fixing the said line, according to the true intent and meaning of the said original act, to which this is an additional supplement, then and in that case, they shall signify the same, under their hands and seals by two certificates; one of which, to be recorded in the clerks office of Washington county, and the other in the clerks office of Frederick county; but if they should be of opinion that the said line has not been run or marked agreeably to the original intention, then and in that case, they shall, in conjunction with the commissioners heretofore appointed, by Washington county, proceed to make such alteration as they may find necessary, to make said line comport with the design of the act, to which this is an additional supplement.

Commissioners; proceedings directed.

2. And be it enacted, That if the said commissioners should find it necessary to make any change from the running and marking as aforesaid; they shall make out and return two plats and explanations, according to the directions in the original act, to which this is an additional supplement.

Plats.

3. And be it enacted, That in the event of the said commissioners of Frederick and Washington counties disagreeing as to the location of said line, the said commissioners shall appoint one other commissioner from one of the adjacent counties, which commissioner so appointed, shall have full power to act with the commissioners appointed by the respective counties, in running and making said line, and making return to the respective county clerks as aforesaid.

Case of disagreement.

4. And be it enacted, That the whole expense which has accrued, or may hereafter accrue, in the running and making said line, shall be paid equally by Frederick and Washington counties, in the same manner that other county charges are paid, each county paying one half of the amount.

Expenses provided for.
