

before him by the oath of any credible person that an offence has been committed against the provisions of this act by driving any carriage, wagon, vehicle of any description, or by riding or driving any horse over the paved footways of said town, to issue his warrant against the offender directed to some constable of the Cumberland Hundred, and returnable before himself or some justice of the peace resident within the town of Cumberland, and named in said execution, whose duty it shall be to arrest, and carry such offender before the justice before whom the warrant is returnable, and such justice upon proof of the commission of such offence by such person, shall give judgment against him for the said fine, and costs, upon which the same proceedings shall be had in the recovery and application of said fine and costs, as are above directed in cases of arrest by a constable upon view of the offence.

4. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act, shall in any wise affect or impair any proceedings had under the said law and its supplements before the passage of this law, or to take away the power of collecting any taxes already imposed or of appropriating the monies already collected, or such as may hereafter be collected under levies made before the passage of this law; and any bailiff or bailiffs into whose hands any levy list may have been placed by the commissioners of said town, before the passage of this act, for collection, shall have power, and they are hereby authorized and required to collect the monies thereby assessed, and to render an account of and pay the same over to the persons who are the commissioners of said town, at the time of the passage of this act, in the same manner and under the same penalties as they were authorized and required before the passage of this act to collect, render an account of, and pay over taxes collected by them, and the said commissioners are hereby authorized and required to pay out of the corporate funds already in hand, or which may hereafter come to their hands, all the corporate debts already incurred, and after payment of the same to expend the residue within the limits of said town in making such improvements and repairs as they may deem most advantageous to its citizens, and to expend it on the sections of said town east or west of Wills creek, in the proportion of the amount collected from those sections.

CHAPTER 131.

A supplement to an act entitled, An Act to regulate Lotteries.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That so much of the act entitled, An Act to regulate lotteries, as authorizes the Governor and Council, to appoint two additional commissioners of lotteries, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Passed Feb.
23, 1825.
Repeal.

CHAPTER 132.

An act for the re-valuation of the real and personal property in Frederick County.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the commissioners of the tax for Frederick county, be, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to meet at Frederick Town as soon as may be practicable after the passage of this act; and they or a majority of them are hereby empowered and direct-

Passed Feb.
23, 1824.
Assessment.

Dec Ses. 1824

Officers, &c.
previous to the passage of this act.