

District No. 9, or Surratts District; thence with the line separating the two last mentioned districts, to Spalding's District line near the store house of Enos F. Pumphrey; thence with the road from Washington to Marlboro, formerly a turnpike, to a point on said road where a road turns off leading to Camp Springs, said point being a little west of the present residence of George W. Richardson; thence in a straight line northwardly to A. B. Sansbury's store; thence with the public road in front of said store, which leads from Forestville to W. H. Shuler's residence, leaving said store in Spalding's District eastwardly, to the Marlboro District line at the intersection of the last mentioned road and the road which leads to the county almshouse; thence with the line separating Marlboro and Spalding's Districts to the line of Election District No. 13, or Kent District; thence with the line separating Marlboro and Kent Districts to a road which intersects said line at a point between the farms of the heirs of the late William J. Bowie and Corydore Coville; thence with said road through the farm of John F. McGregor past the farms of Elisha E. Berry, John H. Traband and others, until it reaches the bridge on the road from Marlboro to Washington, near the residence of George C. Merrick; thence with the corporate limits of Upper Marlboro, first in a westwardly and then in a southerly direction to the beginning, leaving all of the town of Upper Marlboro in the third or Marlboro Election District."

1898 Ch. 328. Changes line between Surratt's and Piscataway Election districts to be as follows:

"The said line shall start at the point where the said division line turns east below Tipp's store, and shall thence run north to Tinker's branch, to the division line between said districts to the point where the said branch crosses the public road in John Steed's farm; and it shall be the duty of the Supervisors of Election, etc. . . ."

1900 Ch. 308. Additional election district, No. 16, erected from the 2d election district as follows:

"That a new election district be laid out and established out of Bladensburg District laying northwest of the main stem or Washington branch of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad in Prince George's County, to be known by the name of Election District No. 16 or Hyattsville Election District.

And that the boundaries of said Election District No. 16, or Hyattsville District, shall be as follows: Beginning at a point where the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad crosses the Vansville Election District line at College Station; thence along said railroad to the District of Columbia line; thence
