

- 1876 Ch. 283. Additional election district, No. 7, erected from the 4th election district as follows:

"Beginning at the crossing of St. Clements Bay Run, by the stage road, and running thence with said stage road towards Chaptico, until it reaches the north-east end or corner of "Neales' Lot," on said stage road, thence by a direct line to the head waters of Brambly Creek, thence by the waters of the Wicomico and Potomac Rivers and St. Clement's Bay to the beginning, including the several islands contiguous to the last described waters. . . . So much of the fourth election district as is not included within the aforesaid lines, shall continue to be known as the fourth election district."

- 1878 Ch. 423. Changes part of the dividing line between 4th and 5th election districts to run as follows:

"That that portion of the fourth election district of St. Mary's county lying north of a straight line starting from a point at which the road leading from the Three Notch road to St. Joseph Church, known as the Forest Hall road, intersects the said Three Notch road, running thence north eighty-eight degrees, west three and one-half miles, to the junction of Sothoron's run with the northwest branch of Chaptico bay, be and the same is hereby taken from said fourth election district of said county and added to and included in the limits of the fifth election district of said county."

- 1878 Ch. 466. Additional election district No. 8, erected from part of the 2d election district.

"So much of the second election district of St. Mary's county as lies on the northeast side of the following lines shall be known as the "Bay" or "Eighth Election District"; that is to say beginning at the line of the third election district where the same is intersected by what is known as the "Western Branch," and running with said branch to the head of St. Mary's river, thence with said river to the line of the first election district; and the voting place in said eighth election district shall be at "Centerville."

So much of the second district as lies on the southwest side of the aforesaid dividing line shall still continue to be known as the second election district, and the place of voting in said district shall be at or near the "Oak Store."

- 1882 Ch. 140. Changes the lines between the 4th and 7th election districts so

"That so much of the Fourth Election District of St. Mary's county as is included in the following lines shall hereafter be known as the Seventh Election District, that
