

as Precinct number one, and the voting place shall be the Courthouse; and all that part of said District (number seven), lying and being south and west of said division line, shall be known as Precinct number two, and the voting place shall be some suitable place selected by the County Commissioners within the limits of the corporation of said city of Westminster."

1872 Ch. 66. 12th election district from 2d, 10th, and 11th.

"Beginning at Sam's Creek, the boundary line between Carroll and Frederick counties, and at the point in said Sam's Creek where the tail race from McKinstry's mills empties therein, and running thence by a straight line to intersect the middle of the public road opposite the storehouse now occupied by D. F. Albaugh and Brother; thence by and with the centre of said public road to the bridge over Little Pipe Creek near Linwood, being a corner of Election District number two; thence through said district, by a straight line, to Reuben Haines' dwelling-house, excluding said premises; thence by a straight line to intersect the public county road from Union Bridge to Union Town, at a point in said road opposite the centre of a lane leading off therefrom towards the public schoolhouse, being between the house and the premises of Abraham Harris, and the premises of Abraham Stoner; thence by a straight line to the spring at the head of Log Cabin Branch, being at a corner of Election District number two; thence down Log Cabin Branch to the centre of the road leading from Union Town to Middleburg; thence along the middle of said public road towards Middleburg, until opposite a lane known as Hann's lane, being now between the lands of Abraham Shirk and Joseph Roop; thence down said lane to the south end thereof; thence by a straight line running by Lewis Haines' dwelling-house, and including said premises, to Pipe Creek, the boundary line between Carroll and Frederick counties; thence up said creek and Sam's Creek to the place of beginning."

1874 Ch. 175. Repeals 1870 Ch. 302 and re-enacts to establish voting precincts in Westminster district, number seven, with amendments:

"Beginning on the Western Maryland Railroad, at the point where said railroad intersects the line of division between Westminster district number seven, and New Windsor district number eleven, and running with said railroad to the Cranberry Station on said railroad, thence by a straight line to John W. Lucabaugh's Mill, thence east to Cranberry Run, then running with the said stream to where it crosses the line of division between Westminster
