

- through the divisional lane between said Davidsons and Elijah Bunsfield, to the road leading from Vienna to New Market, thence with said road to the place of beginning.”
- 1831 Ch. 135. Polling place of 4th election district changed to Parson's Creek.
- 1836 Ch. 69. Line between 4th and 5th election districts leading from Keene's Crossroads to Jones bridge, commonly called the Great Marsh bridge in Dorchester County changed to run from the said Keene's cross roads, with a straight line, to a place called Burton's Landing, and from thence south-west, until it shall intersect the line of the sixth election district.
- 1838 Ch. 212. Line between 4th and 7th election districts near Church Creek changed as follows:
 “Beginning at a bridge near the Storehouse, formerly the property of Isaac & Williams, on Church creek in Dorchester county, then to run in a southerly direction, to the head of a branch called Hudwin's Branch, then with said branch to Button's Creek, then with Button's creek to blackwater river, and all that part of district number four, lying to the north and east of the above given line, shall be attached to and form a part of district number seven.”
- 1840 Ch. 114. Polling place of 4th election district to be at Richard Tall's.
- 1844 Ch. 298. Voters to decide on polling place in Lake's district.
- 1846 Ch. 239. Line for 1st election district changed as follows:
 “Beginning at the bridge over the north-west fork, branch or prong of Nanticoke river, at Federalsburg, thence down said branch or prong to the mouth of Harrison's Mill creek, thence up said creek to the dam of said mill, thence with the county road to Nicoll's Cross Roads, thence with the main road to intersect a road leading from Crotcher's ferry to the town of Vienna, thence to the nearest point on Chicone branch, thence with the meanderings of said branch to the main road leading from the Walnut landing to Vienna, and from thence with said main road to the aforesaid north-west fork, branch or prong of Nanticoke river.”
- 1852 Ch. 117. Erects additional election district to be known as Church Creek district No. 9 with bounds as follows:
 “Commencing on the county road leading from Church Creek to Cambridge, at the junction of the road leading to Little Black Water road, commonly called and known as Hurley's New road, and running with Hurley's new road to the point of intersection with the Little Black Water road, and thence continuing in a straight line to the Little Black Water river, thence down and with Little Black Water river to Big Black Water river, thence with