

ing by the Little Birch mill to the new county road passing over Payne's mill pond; thence with the said new county road until it intersects the road leading from Hicksburg to East New Market; thence with the last named road in the direction of Hicksburg, to the forks of the road leading to Indian creek; thence with the Indian creek to the Great Choptank river; and thence down said river to the place of beginning."

- 1884 Ch. 362. Dividing election district 7 into two election precincts.

"Commencing at the centre of the outer end of Thomas' wharf, thence running with the centre of High street to Poplar street, thence with the centre of Poplar street to Race street, thence with the centre of Race street to the town limits, thence with the centre of the County Road to Maple Dam bridge, thence with the county road to Lot's lane, thence with Lot's lane to the limits of Cambridge district, and all that part of said election district number seven, or Cambridge, lying to the east of said line, shall be known as east Cambridge, or first precinct . . . and all that part of said election district seven, or Cambridge, lying west of said line, shall be known as west Cambridge, or second precinct."

- 1890 Ch. 276. Creates a new precinct in Cambridge or 7th election district, to be known as the third or Dailsville precinct, bounded as follows:

"Commencing at the mouth of Jenkins' creek; thence running with the centre of said creek and the branch that divides the Chamberlaine farm to the county road; thence in about a southern direction to a point in the centre of the Bayly road opposite the residence of Thos. Woolford colored; thence with the Bayly road and Church creek road, to limit of Church creek, or number nine election district of said county, the precinct hereby created being a part of the present western precinct."

- 1892 Ch. 565. Divides 4th election district into two precincts as follows:

". . . all that part of said fourth or Parson's Creek district eastward of a line, beginning at the head waters of Parson's Creek and running with Stuart's canal to its intersection with the head waters of Black Water River, and with said river to the Big Water Bridge shall constitute the first or Madison precinct . . . and all that part lying westward of said line shall constitute the second or Taylor's Island precinct."

- 1894 Ch. 491. 15th or Hurlock election district established with the following boundary:

"Beginning at the mouth of Benjamin Conway's Mill Creek, thence up said creek, mill pond, and branch to the county road to the Baltimore and Eastern Shore Railroad,